RAILWAY DEPARTMENT

"RAILWAY ACT"

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 7 of the "Railway Act," being chapter 285 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," His Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following certificate, numbered 918, signed and sealed this 14th day of June, 1957:—

Certificate No. 918.

"RAILWAY ACT"

(Chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948)

In the matter of Rules and Regulations Governing the Location, Construction, and Clearances of Railways, Part I of the rules and regulations made pursuant to the "Railway Act," being chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948, having been revised in June, 1950, and approved by Order in Council on the 19th September, 1950, under Certificate No. 771:

And whereas subsequent amendments have been approved as follows:—

Rule 62: Certificate No. 793, dated 29th January, 1952.

Rules 37, 38, 39, 40, Appendices G and I: Certificate No. 883, dated 17th July, 1956.

Now, therefore, I, Lyle Wicks, Minister of Railways of the Province of British Columbia, hereby certify that, pursuant to section 289 of the "Railway Act," being chapter 285, R.S.B.C. 1948, I have further amended the aforementioned rules and regulations, Part I, as follows:—

By striking out the figure "5" in the third line of Rule 36, and substituting the figure "6."

By striking out Rule 53, and substituting therefor the following:—

"53. Guard-rails.—On logging and industrial railways all bridges on curves over 6 degrees shall be equipped with a steel tight guard-rail on the inside of the inside running-rail to the full length of the structure, and steel Jordan guard-rails shall be placed on any bridge on any railway where, in the opinion of the Chief Inspector, they are considered necessary."

And by adopting the following:—

"37. Overhead Crossings of Railways by Conduits, Flumes, Conveyers, or Aerial Tramways.—Where conduits, flumes, conveyers, or aerial tramways cross over or under railways, plans and profiles in accordance with Rule 7 and in the form given in Rule 14 shall be submitted to the Minister for approval, and the Minister may issue special instructions with respect to safety of such crossings. An Inspecting Engineer of the Department shall inspect such crossings before being put into operation.

"38. Overhead Crossings of Railways by Pipe-lines.—Where pipe-lines defined as such in the 'Pipe-lines Act' of Canada or the 'Pipe-lines Act,' chapter 60, S.B.C. 1955, cross over a railway in any manner of overhead crossing, plans and profiles in accordance with Rule 7 and in the form given in Rule 14 shall be submitted to the Minister for approval, and the Minister may issue special instructions with respect to safety and the inspection of such crossings.”

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.

LYLE WICKS,
Minister of Railways.

DEPARTMENT OF MINES

PUBLIC NOTICE

DISPOSAL OF CROWN PETROLEUM AND NATURAL-GAS RIGHTS

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Minister of Mines, should be mailed or delivered by hand to Room 409, Douglas Building, Government Street, Victoria, B.C., and will be received by the undersigned up to 2 p.m., Wednesday, August 21st, 1957, for two permits and one petroleum and natural-gas lease under the “Petroleum and Natural Gas Act, 1954,” on the following parcels of land in British Columbia:—

Parcel 95 (permit), consisting of Zone J, National Topographic Series Index Map 93-I-10. Parcel contains 18,470 acres, more or less.

Parcel 96 (permit), consisting of Zone K, National Topographic Series Index Map 93-I-10. Parcel contains 18,470 acres, more or less.

Parcel 97 (lease), consisting of Section 19, Township 85, Range 13, west of the 6th meridian, National Topographic Series Index Map 94-A-8. Parcel contains 640 acres, more or less.

All of the above parcels are located in the Peace River Land District.

Separate tenders for each parcel are to be submitted, enclosed in a sealed envelope marked “Tender for Petroleum and Natural Gas Parcel No. .”

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque, bank draft, or money-order, payable to the Minister of Finance, in an amount to cover fee, first-year rental, and bonus.

Anyone may ask that, if his offer on one parcel is not accepted, his application be considered on another parcel, providing his order of choice is clearly stated, and the amount of his remittance is sufficient to satisfy the fee, first-year rental, and bonus on the further choice.

The Minister reserves the right to reject any or all offers received.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 11th day of July, 1957.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

No. 39260.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Port Coquitlam Industrial Estates Ltd." was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 28th day of June, 1957.

The authorized capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares with a nominal or par value of one dollar each.

The address of its registered office is 900 West Pender Street, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a) To carry on the business of a land company and in connection therewith to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, grant, concession, or otherwise, and to hold, subdivide, lay out in building lots, streets, lanes, squares, and otherwise; to improve, develop, rent, sell, convey, exchange, lease, and otherwise dispose of, and generally deal in lands and real estate of all and every kind and description, whether vacant, improved, or otherwise, as also any right, title, or interest therein, as also property of any other kinds or description, including personal and movable property, and any rights and privileges that the Company may consider necessary for the purposes of its business, and in and upon such lands and real estate, or any part thereof; to make, erect, construct, build, operate, and maintain roads, streets, lanes, paths, ways, excavations, bridges, and other means of communication, factories, mills, plants, manufactories, and all other buildings and works and improvements that may be considered advisable in connection with the purposes of the Company, including the construction in any of such lands, or any part thereof, of sidewalks, walls, embankments, drains, ditches, culverts, water courses, water mains, sewers, sewage systems, lighting plants and accessories, and all and any other improvements of a nature to enhance the value of the Company's property, or any part thereof:

(b) To make advances by way of loans for building purposes or other improvements to purchasers or lessees of any part of the Company's property, and aid by way of advances or otherwise in the construction and maintenance of roads, streets, bridges, sidewalks, waterworks, sewers, lighting plant or plants, and other improvements calculated to render the Company's property more accessible or enhance its value.

(c) To take and hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property sold by the Company, or any money due to the Company from purchasers or advances made by the Company to purchasers for building purposes or other improvements:

(d) To carry on the business of general contractors, builders, and building consultants; to enter into contracts for and to build, erect, construct, purchase, hire, or otherwise acquire dwelling-houses, warehouses, factories, shops, offices, and works of all kinds, and for the purposes aforesaid to carry on the business of a general construction company and contractors for the construction of works of every kind and description:

(e) For the purpose of more effectively carrying out the objects of the Company to employ such skilled craftsmen and other professional servants or agents and other employees and representatives as the directors may consider necessary, and to enter into contracts of employment with such persons and to pay them such salary, wages, commissions, and other compensation as may be agreed upon:

(f) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property, real property, and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and where-soever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company) and (or) in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable; to pay for, satisfy, or discharge the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up, such debentures to be secured either by charge on or a deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(g) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever: Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(h) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any manner whatsoever:

(i) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

(4) To issue, allot, and deliver as fully paid and non-assessable shares, debentures or debenture stock in payment or prepayment of any property, real or personal, and of any right or thing purchased, acquired, subscribed for, or obtained by the Company:

(5) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to take over and manage and carry on all or any of the businesses, undertakings, properties, franchises, goodwill, contracts, rights, powers, and privileges held, enjoyed, or carried on by any person, firm, or corporation, or by any business, the carrying on of which will, in the opinion of the Company, promote the carrying out of the undertakings of the Company, or any of them, or possessed of any property suitable for the purposes of the Company as the Company may deem advisable, and to pay therefor with shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company:

(6) To engage in the business of acquiring, holding, experimenting, financing, delivering, using, or otherwise dealing with all patent rights, licences, and privileges, inventions, improvements, and processes, trade-marks, trade names, and copyrights, or pending applications therefor, and the royalties, rewards, and benefits thereof and therefrom:

(7) To acquire the goodwill, rights, property, and assets of all kinds, and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation engaged in any similar business, and to pay for the same in cash, shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company or otherwise:

(8) To raise and assist in raising money for and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities, or otherwise, of any corporation in the capital stock of which the Company holds shares or with which it may have business relations, and to act as employee, agent, or manager of any such corporation:

(9) To borrow or raise and secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and, in particular, and without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue at par, or at a premium or discount, bonds, debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock payable to bearer or otherwise, either permanent or redeemable, and collaterally grant securities under the Bank Act, and to secure any or all of the obligations of the Company by trust deed or other deeds, writings, or assurances, and to issue and deposit any securities which the Company has power to issue by way of mortgage to secure any sum less than the nominal amount of such securities, and also by way of security for the performance of any contracts or obligations of the Company:

(10) To pay all or any of the expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, organization, and incorporation of the Company:

(11) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, services rendered, or otherwise, and generally to satisfy any payments of or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(12) The business or purpose of the Company is from time to time to do any one or more of the acts and things herein set forth, either as principals, factors, or agents, or in conjunction with others, or for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents, and to hold in the name of others any property which the Company is authorized to acquire, and generally to carry on any business, whether organized or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the properties or rights of the Company, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects enumerated herein or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall appear at the time to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company.

DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND CONSERVATION

"DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND CONSERVATION ACT"

WHEREAS, pursuant to Order in Council No. 2021, approved August 15th, 1955, notice of which was published in The British Columbia Gazette of September 8th, 1955, the following described Crown lands, adjoining the Alaska Highway and known as One Fifteen Creek Protective Strip, were reserved for the use, recreation, and enjoyment of the public: Commencing at a standard pipe post marked "R. 295" on the northerly limit of Alaska Highway, in the vicinity of Mile-post 375; thence due south to a point 2 miles perpendicularly distant to the southerly limit of said Alaska Highway; thence in a general westerly and northerly direction parallel to and 2 miles perpendicularly distant from the southerly and westerly limits of the said Alaska Highway to a point due west of a standard concrete post marked "R. 155" on the easterly limit of said Alaska Highway in the vicinity of Mile-post 410; thence due east to a point 2 miles perpendicularly distant to the said easterly limit of the Alaska Highway; thence in a general southerly and easterly direction parallel to and perpendicularly distant 2 miles from the easterly and northerly limits of said Alaska Highway to a point due north of aforesaid standard pipe post marked "R. 295," being the point of commencement; thence south to said point of commencement, save and except thereout the right-of-way of the Alaska Highway. The above-described area contains 89,600 acres, more or less:

And whereas the above-described area has been examined and it is not considered in the public interest to retain all of the same under reserve for recreational purposes:

And whereas a certain smaller tract is considered to be suitable and required for park purposes:

Therefore, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, under authority of section 96 of the "Land Act," being chapter 175, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," the reserve established pursuant to Order in Council No. 2021, approved August 15th, 1955, be cancelled in so far as it pertains to the above-described One Fifteen Protective Strip:

And to order that, under authority of section 13 of the "Department of Recreation and Conservation Act" being chapter 53, Statutes of British Columbia, 1957, the following described area be constituted a Provincial park known as "Stone Mountain Park": Commencing at a standard pipe post and cairn No. 231 on the northerly limit of the Alaska Highway as the said highway is shown on a plan of survey made by A. C. Pollard, B.C.L.S., dated the 2nd day of February, 1954, and filed in the Department of Lands and Forests under No. 7, Tube 429, the said post being in the vicinity of Mile 389.6, Peace River Land District; thence due north to the northerly boundary of the watershed of North Tetsa River; thence in a general westerly direction along the northerly boundaries of the watersheds of North Tetsa River and MacDonald Creek to the headwaters of an unnamed creek which flows into said MacDonald Creek to the north of the mouth of One Ten Creek; thence southerly to and along the right bank of the main stream of the said unnamed creek flowing into MacDonald Creek to the north of the mouth of One Ten Creek to the right bank of said MacDonald Creek; thence in a general westerly direction along the said right bank of MacDonald Creek to a point due north of the intersection of the left bank of aforesaid One Ten Creek with the left bank of said MacDonald Creek; thence south to the said intersection and continuing in a general southerly direction along the said left bank of One Ten Creek to the headwaters thereof, being a point on the westerly boundary of the watershed of the main stream of aforesaid MacDonald Creek; thence in a general southerly and easterly direction along the westerly and southerly boundaries of the watershed of the said main stream of MacDonald Creek to the easterly boundary of the said watershed of MacDonald Creek; thence in a general northerly direction along the said easterly boundary of the watershed of MacDonald Creek and the westerly boundary of the watershed of the main southerly tributary of North Tetsa River to a point due south of aforesaid pipe post and cairn No. 231 set on the northerly limit of the Alaska Highway; thence north to said pipe post and cairn No. 231, being the point of commencement, except thereout Lots 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 1562, 1625, 1626, 1627, and 1652, and containing approximately 64,000 acres:

And further to order that, under the provisions of section 14 of the said "Department of Recreation and Conservation Act," the said Stone Mountain Park be of Class "B."

E. WESTWOOD,

Minister of Recreation and Conservation.

*Department of Recreation and Conservation,
Victoria, B.C., June 25th, 1957. jy11—666*

"DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND CONSERVATION ACT"

WHEREAS, pursuant to Order in Council No. 278, approved February 11th, 1957, the following described property has been acquired for addition to Wasa Lake Provincial Park: Commencing at the north-west corner of Lot 26 of Plan 2344 on deposit in the Land Registry Office at Nelson, being a subdivision of part of District Lot 3000, Kootenay Land District; thence S. 9° 12' E. a distance of 199.6 feet; thence S. 27° 5' E. a distance of 1,637.9 feet; thence due east to the east boundary of said Lot 26; thence in a northerly and westerly direction along the easterly and northerly boundaries of said Lot 26 to the north-west corner, being the point of commencement, and containing 42.4 acres, more or less:

Therefore, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, under the provisions of section 13 of the "Department of Recreation and Conservation Act," being chapter 53 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1957, Wasa Lake Provincial Park be extended to include the above-described lands.

E. WESTWOOD,

Minister of Recreation and Conservation.

*Department of Recreation and Conservation,
Victoria, B.C., June 25th, 1957. jy11—667*

"DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND CONSERVATION ACT"

WHEREAS, pursuant to Order in Council No. 533, approved March 16th, 1956, a 12-acre parcel of unsurveyed land situated on the north side of Le Jeune Lake was created a Provincial park of Class "A" to be known as "Lac le Jeune Park":

And that to meet public need it is considered desirable to extend the boundaries of the said park:

And, further, that certain vacant Crown land has been examined and found suitable for inclusion within the said park:

Therefore, the Administrator in Council has been pleased to order that, under the provisions of section 13 of the "Department of Recreation and Conservation Act," being chapter 53, Statutes of British Columbia, 1957, the said park be extended to include the following described lands:—

(a) Commencing at a point on the edge of the bed of Le Jeune Lake, on the north shore thereof, being 33 chains west and 30 chains south of the north-east corner of Section 36, Township 17, Range 19, west of the 6th meridian; thence north 4 chains; thence west 6 chains; thence north 21.5 chains; thence east 50 chains; thence south 6 chains, more or less, to a point on the aforesaid edge of the bed of Le Jeune Lake; thence in a general westerly direction following the said edge of the bed to the point of commencement, containing 92.0 acres, more or less:

(b) Commencing at a point on the edge of the bed of Le Jeune Lake, on the south shore thereof, said point being 12 chains south and 11 chains west of the north-west corner of the South-west Quarter of Section 31, Township 17, Range 18, west of the 6th meridian; thence east 30 chains; thence north 6.5 chains, more or less, to a point on the aforesaid edge of the bed of Le Jeune Lake; thence in a general north-westerly and south-westerly direction following the said edge of the bed of Le Jeune Lake to the point of commencement, and containing 33.6 acres, more or less.

Project No. 883—Cassiar Road, Sawmill Point—Hotel Creek, (25.55 Miles)

SEALED TENDERS, marked "Tender for Project No. 883, Cassiar Road, Sawmill Point—Hotel Creek," will be received by the Minister of Highways, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., up to 12 o'clock noon (Pacific Daylight Saving time) on Wednesday, the 31st day of July, 1957, and opened in public at that time and date. Contractors who are residents of Canada at date of tender are eligible, or if the contractor is a corporation it must have been incorporated and carrying on business in Canada for at least one year prior to date of tender. Plans, specifications, and conditions of tender may be obtained from the Department of Highways, 635 Burrard Street, Vancouver 1, B.C.; the office of the Regional Construction Engineer, Department of Highways, Prince George, B.C.; or from the undersigned, on deposit of a sum of ten dollars ($10), which will be refunded on their return in good condition within a period of one month of the awarding of the contract, except in the case of the successful contractor where the plan deposit is not refundable.

Each tender must be accompanied by a bid bond or a certified cheque on a chartered Canadian bank, payable to the order of the Minister of Finance for British Columbia, in an amount equal to 5 per cent of the tender price, for which may be substituted by the successful contractor a performance bond, in a form acceptable to the Minister of Highways, equal to 50 per cent of the tender price as security for the due and faithful performance, observance, and fulfilment by the contractor of all the covenants, provisos, agreements, conditions, and reservations contained in the contract, to be observed, performed, and complied with on the part of the contractor.

The cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them when the contract has been awarded.

Tenders must be made out on the forms supplied and enclosed in the envelope furnished.

Tenderers must submit with their tenders a list stating the type, capacity, and present location (so that inspection can be made if necessary) of the equipment in their possession or at their disposal which is immediately available for the carrying-out of the work within the time-limit specified without in any way curtailing or delaying any Departmental project that may be under contract at this date. No tender will be considered which does not contain this information.

No tender will be accepted or considered which contains an escalator clause or any other qualifying conditions, and the lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.
